Ranu is 16 years old and lives with her parents and three sisters in a nearby basti. While going to school, she finds that some neighbourhood boys continue to harass her. They whistle, circle the cycle around her, pass comments. Sometimes, they also make obscene gestures and take photos on their cell phones and share with other boys. They sometimes board the same bus, and stalk her on the way. Ranu shares with her friends but is scared to tell her parents. One day, Ranu's father sees the boys in their act. He immediately decides that she should stop going to school and it is time to get her married. Ranu is married in haste to an older man and leaves the basti. She pleads her case and wants to study, But no luck. Within a year, she becomes a mother. She has a lot of housework to do and becomes physically weak. Her husband drinks sometimes and beats her. No one helps her and she doesn't know what to do (Source: Breakthrough-SANAM)

Think and answer the following questions:

1. Who is responsible for Ranu's condition today?
2. Why did her father not report the case and get her married instead?
3. What options did Ranu have? Who could she have gone to for support?
